 Assistant Director (Personnel)
 Chief, Procurement and Supply Office

SUBJECT: Administrative Support to the President's Committee on International Information Activities

25X1A

1. Effective 4 February 1953 [REDACTED] is relieved of his responsibility of insuring that proper administrative support to the President's Committee on International Information Activities (Jackson Committee) is provided, and Mr. Wilfred L. Peel is designated to assume this responsibility in addition to his other duties.

2. Mr. Peel is responsible to the Jackson Committee and to this office for insuring that proper administrative support is rendered. He is authorized to request any assistance he deems necessary or appropriate from any administrative component of CIA in order to insure the successful accomplishment of his mission.

3. It is extremely important that this Committee be adequately and efficiently supported, and Office Heads are requested to give Mr. Peel every possible assistance.
